

MEGAN RAPHAEL, professional speaker and certified life coach, transforms workshops, retreats, and conferences into interactive and thought-provoking experiences. Participants praise her insight, enthusiasm, and ability to engage the audience quickly and brilliantly.

ENHANCE the content of your event by adding Megan to the roster as a speaker or panel member. Sessions can range from one- to three-hour presentations, for individuals and groups as large as two hundred. Phone today for availability.

Megan Raphael, author of The Courage Code and founder of the Courage Project, an international initiative championing the feminine face of courage, has more than twenty years experience in organization development, leadership training, and coaching. She has a B.A. in social work and is an expert on women's courage and leadership.

To learn how Megan can inspire your audience to meet the challenges of these turbulent economic and social times, telephone her at 231-922-2234.

“Megan’s session at our international leadership conference challenged attendees to look at courage through a new lens ...”

A. Billings, Athena International

AVAILABLE TOPICS:

- Feminine Face of Leadership
- The Art of Resiliency
- Secrets of Courageous Women
- Your Courage, Your Life
- Creating an Authentic Life
- Building Strong and Healthy Relationships
- The Courage Code. Use It. It's Yours.

Contact Megan Raphael at 231-922-2234 or visit www.courageproject.com

“The Courage Code challenges traditional and archaic definitions and encourages women to get in touch with their own courage and desires.”

Midwest Book Review

“The Courage Code has universal appeal while at the same time speaking to a diversity of women whose paths are taking them to different places.”

Dr. Johnnetta B. Cole, President, Bennett College for Women

ISBN-10: 0-9661060-5-9
ISBN-13: 978-09661060-5-3
Retail Price: $15.95
Available online at Amazon.com and Barnesandnoble.com